Paul the new Moses? - Ever stop to wonder why and when the Apostle Paul became the new Moses? I mean Moses brought us the 10 Commandments, the Law and Jesus fulfilled the Law and led us into Love and grace and yet we hang on Paul's word to specific people in a specific context and make them a kinda weird Christian law often missing the heart of the Kingdom in what he is saying. The guys wade into an exciting but controversial topic!

Life in the World PT.1 & PT.2 - Another installment of "What the heck were they thinking?" where the guys spring board from a couple silly but true events to how do we live in the world, more specifically with other people who don't believe what we do. The guys really push the edge on what and why we believe what we do and challenge us all as followers of Jesus to deal with fear and root ourselves in relationship with Jesus.

Evangelism - Is evangelism a sales pitch? If so what are we really selling? The guys spring board from a 'dust up' in the church of England and talk about a lifestyle of relationship with Jesus in which evangelism is a natural fruit. This is consistent with scripture and honoring to both God and men. It allows us to participate with what God is doing in the lives of others while not reducing them to a project.

Models PT. 1 & PT. 2 - No, not talking about the 'catwalk' or the fashion industry. The guys go a little deeper into what they are thinking through on how we can live life and healthy faith together without building fences or inflexible structures. I suppose whether you have a model or don't, you still have a model - the absence of a model is a model in itself (not p therefore p? Huh?). Yes, it is just as easy to be bound by a non model too but try and hear the heart of the wrestle! The issue is brought back to one thing; intimate relationship with Jesus.

Cow Tipping - Mark and Mike start a semi-regular series called "What the heck were they thinking?" and springboard into an all out, no holds barred, sacred cow tipping fest! Yee haa! They touch on a variety of things from Church membership to church discipline, covering (yes again!), tithing and I can't remember what else! Grab yur boots 'n rain coats cuz it gets messy!

Life on The Rock - Mike shares about a recent gathering and how God was moving and taking His word deep into the hearts of real people, with real answers for real life. Mark and Mike discuss how ministry just flows from natural relationships and comes from healthy faith that is free to share what it has. Not a lot of hype, in fact very simple. Life together.

The Shack Book - A publishing underdog story and runaway best seller. With 500,000 copies sold and a movie deal in the works what makes The Shack so appealing and healing for so many? The guys wade into a few of the hi-lights of The Shack and wrestle with the criticism.

Life in Compartments PT. 1 & PT. 2 - Mark and Michael continue in a bit of a lively dust up regarding the lies that hide in our compartments and some suspect theology which gives an illusion or a promise of life but in fact binds people to religion, a system and rule keeping. Naked, poor and blind! In your face and a bit irreverent Mark and Michael pull the pin on a few theological land mines.
